SeeUnity and Fireman & Co. Announce Partnership

8/15/2017 – Denver, CO SeeUnity, an industry leader in content integration, synchronization, and migration of enterprise content, have joined forces with Fireman & Company, an experienced legal consulting firm, to bring the best migration solution to firms around the world.

As a partner to SeeUnity, Fireman & Company will be extending their services offering to include SeeUnity's Velocity Migration tool to help streamline their customers content migrations. Fireman has years of experience helping law firms with their DM migrations and has found that SeeUnity's migration solution is best-in-class. The goal to standardize Velocity as their go-to migration solution came as it offers an extensive list of ECM and DM connectors, and has robust capabilities that can make even the toughest migrations run smoothly and quickly.

 "We are excited to partner with SeeUnity," said Joshua Fireman, President of Fireman & Company. "This partnership agreement is going to allow us to offer law firms more timely migrations, and extend our capability to assist in larger migrations with a best-in-class migration solution. In addition, the partnership helps us develop better best practices for DM migrations."

"This partnership with Fireman & Company is something we are extremely proud of at SeeUnity," said Dan Anderson, CEO and Co-founder of SeeUnity. "This puts our robust migration solution as a preferred solution with one of the largest legal IT consultant firms, and it will accelerate our presence in the legal market and better serve our customers."

Fireman will begin offering Velocity as their migration solution of choice immediately. For more information about Velocity Content Migration, read here, or email info@seeunity.com.

About SeeUnity:

SeeUnity was founded by industry veterans looking to solve real world problems within the enterprise content management industry. Integration of ECM systems has been the main focus of SeeUnity since its inception. At the time SeeUnity's founders believed that was the largest problem plaguing the industry, and it has held true throughout the years. Today, SeeUnity supports over 15 connectors including: Alfresco, Microsoft SharePoint, OpenText eDOCS, OpenText Content Server, OpenText Documentum, iManage Work, NetDocuments, IBM FileNet, HighQ, and Microsoft OneDrive. Over the years, SeeUnity has expanded its solutions and software to enhance its integration offerings with migration, synchronization, and mobility solutions to help solve any integration challenge businesses meet.
